

Peter Linford

Qualified NAFD Tutor, Midlands and South East

Building on our long history and legacy of training Funeral Directors to be the best, CPJ Field is proud to be able to offer external candidates the chance to train with NAFD approved tutor, Peter Linford. Peter has been Head of Training at the CPJ Field Academy for seven years and over this time has welcomed trainee Funeral Directors from other funeral businesses across the country.

Peter delivers two courses per year in DipFAA and DipFD qualifications, through a mixture of classroom and distance learning.

"My goal on these courses is that groups should have fun. We spend a lot of time studying together and that time should not be a chore but a joy. Where we can go on visits, we do that. Where I can get guest speakers in, we get them. There's lots to learn from each other and I want an environment where that can be exciting and stimulating." Peter Linford

For more information on how to train with the best to become the best and to enrol on an upcoming course, please contact Peter.Linford@cpjfield.co.uk or call 01444 230 430.
